

New Church Services in Viola

Viola Community Center
1704 14th Ave.
Viola, IL

Sunday, November 20 and 27
Sunday, December 4, 11, 18

6:00 p.m.

Rev. Steven L. Anderson

"I listened to every word of every sermon." Forty-something woman, Rock Island, IL

"Pastor Anderson, that was a very good sermon." 4th Grader, Iowa Falls, IA

"I've never heard anything like this in my life." Ninety-something man, Geneseo, IL

"Your sermon was very contemporary. We could understand you." Woman, Coal Valley, IL

"It's nice to see people coming out of church with smiles on their faces." Man, Davenport, IA

Rev. Anderson is a graduate of Concordia Theological Seminary, Ft. Wayne, IN, and has been an ordained Lutheran clergy for 26 years. He will be leading a traditional Lutheran church service for at least five Sundays in Viola. Rev. Anderson is the father of three grown children and lives in Sherrard with Sara, his wife of 32 years.

www.focusonthegospel.com